OBJECTIVE

I have over twenty years in IT experience, including skills in marketing and training. I have been the President/CEO of two IT firms and also have a PhD in Systematic Theology and education in Biblical languages. I am ready to work for a variety of clients or organizations, ensuring organizations save time, money, and operate efficiently using the latest cutting-edge innovations in the technology industry.

SUMMARY OF SKILLS

My entire listing of skills can be found at https://parkernathan.com. For AEM, I handled: Customer Support and Training, including: writing manuals and product documentation, producing screencasts (using Camtasia and ScreenFlow), taught live webinars and personal training (using GoToMeeting and Microsoft Teams), plus I also handled phone and email support for clients with weather stations. I also handled social media administration for the company. For Accordance Bible Software, I handled Marketing and Training, including: administering the company forums, teaching live webinars (using GoToMeeting), planning regular sales with the Accordance marketing team, and collecting feedback to plan Accordance's strategic future. I'm also a volunteer advisor for Cyber Team US.
